Our Story

Our story wrote its early chapters in 1934 in Shimla where Mr. M.S. Oberoi pioneered the idea of luxury hospitality in India by opening his first hotel. The lessons self-taught, the inevitable mistakes made, the wisdom gained, the prestigious awards won. All have formed the compass for successive generations of Oberois.

To this day, we still practice the most simple and uncommon of operational philosophies that began with Mr. M.S. Oberoi himself and now echoed by his son and Chairman Emeritus Mr. P.R. S. Oberoi: The guest is everything.

Our joy comes from ensuring each is seen and valued as a person, a friend, a family member who has come to stay. It 's present in every gesture through words spoken or unspoken, in ways that are obvious and in ways that are quietly respectful of one's time and privacy.

You will be hard pressed to find properties as beautiful as ours or restaurants, guest rooms and facilities that are as exceptional. But these are not what give Oberoi Hotels & Resorts its incomparable reputation.

What our guests speak about most is that singular experience of being truly seen, heard and understood. Something no other hotel or resort can emulate. The astonishing effect one feels from an act, a gesture, a word; that is heart felt.

The Group

The Oberoi Group, founded in 1934, operates 32 hotels, resorts and cruisers. The Group has presence in six countries under the luxury 'Oberoi' and five-star 'Trident' brand. The Group is also engaged in flight catering, airport restaurants, travel and tour services, car rentals, project management and corporate air charters.

WHO WE ARE

On 19th November 2014, The Oberoi Group commenced a partnership with SOS Children's Villages with the objective of supporting the education and well being of under-privileged children, a primary principle of the Company's CSR policy.

SOS Children's Villages provide family-based care for parentless, homeless or abandoned children.

SOS Children's Villages provide a safe, secure and nurturing environment where vulnerable children can access education, nutrition, healthcare and family-based care. Each village consists of 12-15 homes, with every home accommodating up to ten children and an SOS 'mother'. The children stay in these family homes under the care of the 'mother' and grow up with their siblings and friends.

OVERVIEW

The Oberoi Group with SOS Children's Villages provides for the upbringing and education to 210 parentless, homeless or abandoned children living in SOS Children's Villages in Mumbai, Delhi, Bengaluru, Bhubaneswar, Chennai, Jaipur and Kolkata. The Oberoi Group also sponsors higher education through Bachelors Programs of 61 youths at various professional institutes.

A highlight of the partnership between The Oberoi Group and SOS Children's Village is the enthusiastic participation and involvement of the Company's employees. Team members from hotels and business units of The Oberoi Group are actively engaged with the children of SOS Children's Villages and help drive a number of initiatives around learning, fun and games.

VOCATIONAL

* Team members from the Corporate Office and hotels visit villages to counsel children on career options available to them.

* Children and their mothers are invited to hotels so they get a better understanding of the behind the scenes working of a hotel. Children meet and interact with hotel employees, participate in interactive demonstrations in Housekeeping, Food & Beverage, and the Kitchen.

The objective is to inspire children to pursue a career in hospitality.

SOCIAL

* Hotels and business units host special parties and events for children from SOS Children's Villages on Diwali, Christmas, New Year and other festive occasions.

* Culinary teams organise cookery classes for the children and their mothers at SOS Children's Villages.

* Employees from hotels and Corporate Office host sports events for the children in the villages.

FUNDRAISING

The diligence, enthusiasm and intelligence displayed by Mohan Singh impressed Mr. Grove, the manager of the hotel. A quick learner, Mohan Singh did not restrict his efforts to fulfilling the job description of a desk clerk but sought and shouldered additional responsibilities. A few years later, when Mr. Clarke acquired a small hotel he asked Mr. Oberoi to assist him. It was here, at Clarkes Hotel, that Mohan Singh gained firsthand experience in all aspects of operating a hotel.

Budding Entrepreneur

In 1934, Mr. Oberoi acquired his first property, The Clarkes Hotel, from his mentor by mortgaging his wife's jewellery and all his assets. Four years later, he signed a lease to take over operations of the five hundred rooms Grand Hotel in Calcutta that was on sale following a cholera epidemic. With his customary confidence and sheer determination to succeed, he was able to convert this hotel into a highly profitable business venture.

Over several years, Mr. Oberoi had purchased shares in Associated Hotels of India (AHI), which owned Cecil and Corstophans hotels in Shimla, Maidens and Imperial hotels in Delhi and a hotel each in Lahore, Murree, Rawalpindi and Peshawar. In 1943, Mr. Oberoi acquired controlling interest in AHI. He thus became the first Indian to run the country's largest and finest hotel chain. In the tumultuous years just prior to Indian independence, Mr. Oberoi met and intimately interacted with the would-be leaders of Free India, all of whom were, at one time or other, guests at his hotels.

International Pioneer

Having consolidated his early ventures, Mr. Oberoi became the first Indian hotelier to enter into an agreement with an internationally renowned hotel chain, to open the first modern, five-star hotel in the country. The Oberoi Inter Continental, in New Delhi opened in 1965. The I-Con, as it became popularly known, offered facilities that no other hotel in the country matched and was India's first luxury hotel.

This achievement was enhanced with the opening of the 35-storey Oberoi Sheraton in Bombay, in 1973. Mr. Oberoi was the first Indian to work in association with international chains to woo international travellers to India. This led to a heavy influx of international travellers and foreign occupancy soared to an average of 85%. This enabled The Oberoi Hotels to significantly contribute to India's foreign exchange earnings.

Another pioneering landmark was the establishment in 1966 of the prestigious Oberoi School of Hotel Management, recognised by the International Hotel Association in Paris. Considered India's premier institute, the school is now known as The Oberoi Centre of Learning and Development and continues to provide high quality professional training in hospitality management.

Other notable firsts were the decision to employ women in his hotels and to establish a chain of ancillary industries producing and supplying items like consumables and stationery to ensure the highest quality. The Oberoi Group was also the first to start flight catering operations in India, in 1959. The Oberoi Flight Services, located in New Delhi, Mumbai and Chennai, provide in-flight meals of international quality to reputed airlines.

Mr. Oberoi realised that the hotel and hospitality business is greatly dependent on travel agents, a vital element in the distribution chain.

With vision and imagination, Mr. Oberoi converted old and dilapidated palaces, historical monuments and buildings into magnificent hotels such as The Oberoi Grand in Calcutta, the historic Mena House in Cairo and The Windsor in Australia. It was, in fact, in the face of severe opposition that the State Government of Victoria awarded Mr. Oberoi the lease of The Windsor, a heritage building in Melbourne. He personally supervised the restoration of the hotel to its original grandeur and later acquired it. The Oberoi Cecil in Shimla, built in the early 20th century, reopened in April 1997 after extensive and meticulous renovation.

Awards and Honours

In 1943, Mr. Oberoi was conferred the title of Rai Bahadur by the British Government in recognition of his services to the Crown. Thereafter, Mr. Oberoi won acclaim and received several national and international awards including admission to the Hall of Fame by the American Society of Travel Agents (ASTA) and Man of The World award by the International Hotel Association (IHA), New York. He was presented the Order of The Republic, First Class by the President of Egypt. He got an Honorary Doctorate of Business Administration from the International Management Centre, Buckingham, UK. Newsweek named him one of the Elite Winners of 1978. The PHDCCI Millennium award in 2000 was presented in recognition of his entrepreneurial and business success. In 2001, the Government of India accorded him the Padma Bhushan.

Globalisation of The Oberoi Group

To place The Oberoi Group on the world map, Mr. Oberoi exported management expertise to Australia, Egypt and Singapore, where The Oberoi Group took charge of the management of existing luxury hotels. The success of Oberoi Hotels & Resorts overseas, in the face of global competition, greatly enhanced the image of The Oberoi Group.

Today, Oberoi Hotels & Resorts in Indonesia, Egypt, Mauritius, Saudi Arabia and India add value and distinction to their host countries.

Foundations of The Future

Under Mr. Oberoi's dynamic leadership, The Oberoi Group introduced its second brand of hotels, 'Trident'. Trident hotels are five-star hotels that have established a reputation for excellence and are acknowledged for offering quality and value. These hotels combine state of the art facilities with dependable service in a caring environment, making them the ideal choice for business and leisure travellers. Presently there are ten Trident hotels in India located in Mumbai, Gurgaon (Delhi National Capital Region), Chennai, Hyderabad, Bhubaneswar, Agra, Jaipur and Udaipur. The Oberoi Group also operates a Trident hotel in the Saudi Arabian city of Jeddah.

In the luxury category, The Group opened The Oberoi Rajvilas, Jaipur; The Oberoi Cecil, Shimla; The Oberoi Udaivilas, Udaipur; The Oberoi Vanyavilas, Ranthambhore; The Oberoi Amarvilas, Agra; The Oberoi Sukhvilas Resort & Spa, New Chandigarh, Wildflower Hall, Shimla in the Himalayas; The Oberoi, Bali and The Oberoi, Lombok, Indonesia; The Oberoi, Sahl Hasheesh, Egypt, The Oberoi, Mauritius and Luxury Nile Cruiser, Egypt - The Oberoi Zahra and The Oberoi Philae.

The Group employs more than 12,000 people worldwide and owns or manages 30 hotels and luxury cruisers in five countries.

Mr. Oberoi's achievements and successes did not, however, take from his simplicity and old-fashioned charm. He retained, until his death in May 2002 at the age of 103, a unique humility. He was fond of saying, I have been able to accept the challenge and make good. There is comfort in knowing that whatever little I have achieved has also helped to raise the prestige of my country.
